B-262256 SSA has requested that facilities it has contacted provide lists of their Current Initiative inmates to the local field offices. The agency has offered flexible reporting Addresses Current guidelines for frequency and format of the lists (computerized or on Prisoners and New SSA paper). In general, has requested that facilities that have provided data Admissions to it previously or on a trial basis continue providing data. In addition, SSA has requested that facilities that have not provided any lists in the past provide (1) a current census of their inmates and (2) continuing lists of has SSA new admissions to the facility. Specifically, we found that contacted the 25 largest jail systems in the country and requested prisoner SSA data from them. Most of these systems had agreed to supply with prisoner data beginning in early to mid-1996. One system (Orange County, Calif.) began providing data in April 1995, and another system (New York City) has agreed to a pilot project including data beginning with January 1995. For many years, has lacked an effective program to detect SSA SSI Conclusions recipients in county and local jails. It has relied primarily on (1) the recipients or their representative payees to voluntarily report incarceration and (2) redeterminations. Neither of these mechanisms has has erroneously paid millions of SSA been completely effective; as a result, SSA dollars to thousands of prisoners in county and local...
