Montucla, dated the 7th year of the French Republic. This is a quaint looking work, but contains much that is valuable. One very fine work was obtained this last year, entitled the Picture Galleries of Europe, by Mr. J. G. D. Armengaud. Prof. Ten Brook is Chief Librarian, assisted by W. J. Cocker A catalogue of the books is soon to be finished, by means of which the usefulness of the library will be greatly increased. Since the last issue of the Castalia, Moses Coit Tyler has been appointed to the Chair of English Literature and Rhetoric; and M. L. D ooge, as Assistant in the Department of the Ancient Languages and Literature. This last named gentleman graduated but a few years since, and his call to this position is evidence sufficient of the high standard of scholarship attained here. While it is a pleasure to notice the appointment of these men, it is painful to mention the resignation of Prof. James R. Boise. This distinguished scholar has been for fifteen years connected with this University as Professor of Greek. During this period he has twice visited Europe. He is widely known as an educator and author. He published his Greek Prose Composition in 1849, a valuable book, as many eminent scholars have affirmed. In 1850 he issued his edition of Xenophon s Anabasis. At the same time an edition of the First Three Books of the Anabasis with a vocabulary...
