Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Republican Party Its Present Duties and Past Achievements, and Democratic Repudiation, Vol. 5 Co Conservative. The one is Rome, the other is Carthage; the one is Luther, the other is the Pope; the one is Cromwell, the other is Charles; the one is Washington, the other is George III; the one is freedom, the other is human bondage; the one is Grant, the other is Lee; the one is the Republican part, the other is modern Democracy. Here is the jirrepressible conflict. Jt has always existed, it always will exist. As physical light and darkness antagonize so do moral light and darkness. As the former will continue to exist while the material universe endures, so will the latter while the moral world remains. But light is more potent than-, darkness, and the new spirit is stronger than the old. When the two forces meet the new always triumphs over the old. In eveiy contest of principles this will always be the case. It triumphed in our early history; it won on the battle-fields of the South; it gained its cause when the great jury of the people rendered their verdict in November last; and when: i crowning triumph is achieved, in the final passage of the fifteenth amendment, in spite of the persistent, stubborn, and factious opposition of the Democratic party, two political organizations willremain; the one characterized as now by the fire of youth, the other by the wheeziness of age: and they will be judged according to their past career and future tendency. They that believe in progress founded on intelligence will follow the Republican faith; they that love darkness rather than...
